Shirui Wang

University of Waterloo Software Engineer

ca.linkedin.com/in/shiruiWang
https://github.com/R-Wang97
shirui.wang@hotmail.com
289 – 879 – 1798

Summary of Qualifications:

- Excellent problem solving, analytical, and implementation skills developed through over 2 years of programming and debugging experience
- Experienced with Java and C through personal projects and programming courses
- Familiar with GitHub and Git Shell through collaboration with others on GitHub
- Working knowledge of HTML, CSS, and jQuery developed through designing personal website

Projects:

Personal Website   (Jul. 2015 – Present)

- Took initiative to design and code personal website starting last summer
- Learned and gained working knowledge of HTML5, CSS, JavaScript, and jQuery
- Also gained experience with Bootstrap, using it to enhance website look and responsiveness

Megaman X   (Jun. 2015)

- Created a version of Megaman by Capcom through Java
- Became extremely familiar with Object Oriented Programming
- Furthered Java development skills through the incorporation of algorithms and randomization

WatChewUpTo   (Nov. 2015)

- Android app that was made in less than 24 hours at Waterloo EngHack
- Worked with others to design a food database app for uWaterloo Food Services
- Gained exposure to Android app development with Android Studio and GitHub collaboration

Education:

University of Waterloo, Software Engineering   (Sep. 2015 – Present)

- Relevant Courses: Programming Principles, Introduction to Methods of Software Engineering

Sir William Mulock S.S., Ontario Secondary School Diploma   (Sep. 2011 – Jun. 2015)

- Relevant Courses: Computer Science

Activities and Interests:

- Classical ARCT pianist who also enjoys Broadway music
- Enjoys solving coding challenges on HackerRank
- Light reading on computer hardware and technological advances
- Modern physics including relativity, quantum mechanics, and string theory